The Chairman presented the following grievance that was received from the students for discussion.

Nature of Grievance: Facilities such as handwash and air fresheners in washrooms should be made available. The male students of MBA department reached out to the principal to address their concerns, which were conveyed in a letter signed by the students, requesting suitable action on the above said matter. The principal received and filed the grievance letter accordingly.

Discussions and Decisions on Grievances:

After reviewing the grievance circulated to the members by the secretary, the members discussed in detail and decided to instruct the maintenance team to install handwash liquid and air fresheners in all washrooms to enhance proper sanitization. It was also resolved to communicate this decision to the students by the Member Secretary.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by Secretary
