The Chairman expressed his gratitude and happiness to all members for their support, acknowledging the absence of any ragging cases on campus and the successful organization of slogan writing activities aimed at raising awareness among students during the previous years.

The Chairman requested the Secretary, Dr. Sadanand N Patil, to brief all members and student representatives present regarding the Anti-Ragging initiatives planned in the institution.

He briefed all members and students about the activities planned, such as a guest Lecture on establishing a "Ragging-free campus" scheduled for March and a session on "The harmful effects of Ragging" during May. These activities aim to cultivate an atmosphere of respect and safety among students, promoting inclusivity and support within the campus.

All the Members were advised to create awareness among students and monitor students discipline in and around the campus.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Member Secretary.
