He initiated the confirmation of the minutes of the previous meeting held on 26/02/2020. The members were appreciative of the successful organization of all the activities that were planned in the previous meeting. This included overseeing poster presentations by the students and facilitating a session on the legal aspects of ragging.

The Chairman requested members to visit the hostels and create awareness among students to prevent ragging. He also advised the members to continue interacting within the students community from time to time to prevent ragging.

Student representatives were instructed to continue their efforts in creating awareness among their peers, utilizing activities such as role-play sessions and interactive sessions to recognize and address potential instances of ragging.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks by the Secretary of the committee.
